OUTSIDERS STAND OFF RACING CHOICES

Favorites Manage to Land Three of the Events in the Mud at Gravesend—Beldame, Asterisk and Duke of Kendal the Successful Ones.

Montreson Wins the Carlton Stakes, the Day's Feature, in a Drive, Aided by Lyne's Bad Ride on the Favorite, Ormonde's Right.

(Special to The Evening World.) GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, June 1.—The only stake at Gravesend this afternoon was the Carlton, and much of the interest in this stake was destroyed by the withdrawal of Delhi. The Keene colt is not partial to muddy races, as a two-year-old, and Mr. Keene did not care to take a chance with him, as Delhi has many valuable engagements in sight. Montreson, Ormonde's Right and Orthodox were the only horses to face the starter and the talent made Ormonde's Right a favorite. Montreson was the second choice and the winner. He went to the front, made all the running and won, all out, by a length and a half.

Lyne was criticized for making three separate attempts to move to the front with Ormonde's Right and then taking him up again. Ormonde's Right was going very easily at the head of the stretch and if it was in him to win he could have done the trick in the last quarter. Beldame emphasized her claim to being a first-class mare by defeating Mamie Worth in the opening event. She was a hot favorite and won easily. The defeat of Belle Strome was stunning. She was a hot favorite, but she ran out at the head of the stretch and Martha Gorman, who was heavily backed from 5 to 1 to 5 to 2, beat her a nose. Belle Strome has a sore mouth, which accounted for her running out. The weather was raw and cold and the track very heavy. The attendance was light.

Favorite Won Easily. There were fifteen withdrawals from the first race, leaving eight to go to the post, with Beldame, Ormonde's Right and Mamie Worth as the second choice. All were pronounced mud-drawers. Beldame was the favorite and she made the running to the stretch, followed by Lady Amelia, Beldame and Heatherdown. When they straightened out Beldame closed on Mamie Worth, and in a drive to the last sixteenth finally got to the front.
